

The Project involves an equity investment into a fund that will invest in impactful information and communication technology (ICT) investments focused on digital infrastructure investments in sub ...

This paper investigates the formation of convergence clubs and examines the drivers of growth convergence in Africa by accounting for individual heterogeneous effects and establishing ...

Convergence Partners, the top private equity investor in sub-Saharan Africa's technology industry, is pleased to announce the $296 million closure of its Convergence Partners Digital ...

Convergence Partners, a leading investment fund manager focusing on technology in Africa, has successfully closed a funding round that raised $296 million.

Convergence Partners, founded in 2006, is an investment management firm focused on the TMT sector in Africa. Convergence Partners has a proven track record of developing new investment ...

Convergence Partners is an impact investment management firm focused on the telecommunications, media and technology sector in Africa

Convergence Partners was founded in 2006 and invests as value-adding partners into private equity and infrastructure opportunities in the technology and digital sectors across sub ...

While private equity deal-makers have raised hundreds of billions dollars in recent years to deploy across the globe, funds have been more cautious about investing in Africa.

Jasper will be responsible for the expansion of data centres across the continent to meet Africa's accelerating demand for data and digital infrastructure. The new appointment follows Actis' wider ...

Convergence Partners Africa Limited has been appointed as a juristic representative of Convergence Partners Management Proprietary Limited. Convergence Partners Africa Limited has a CIS Manager ...

African Convergence Switch

Web: <https://www.maxtools.co.za>

